

Do you want to positively support and improve boys' mental health?

'Trainers of boys' - Professional Development Training to improve Boys Mental Health

Free of Charge within Hull & East Riding

This free course will enable you to look at the gender difference between boys and girls, to challenge stereotypes in boys' mental health and develop your skills in this area.

Aim

- To raise awareness of different approaches to working with boys

Objectives

On completion of the course participants will:

- Acknowledge gender differences
- Challenge the stereotypes of mental health in boys
- Demonstrate appropriate skills to work with boys effectively

This training will last one day, free of charge and a Buffet Lunch will be provided.
